Sarah Jones Blo

Sarah has been an professional entertainer for over a decade. She regularly performs at corporate events, comedy clubs, and cruise ships. Her work has taken her around the world performing in nearly a dozen countries. From regional touring in small country towns to the bright stage lights of the big cities there is nothing she and her puppet friends can't handle.

Sarah has taken her critically acclaimed stage shows to the Melbourne, Adelaide and Edinburgh Fringe Festivals. She has made many television and radio appearances. She is known for her impeccable ventriloquial technique and is able to produce vocal illusions such as crying babies and distant voices.

Sarah is passionate about her work and keen to save this art from fading away. She recently performed as a headline act and spoke on a panel at the International Ventriloquist Convention in the USA. She has also volunteered as a teacher at the Cape Town College of Magic, South Africa to pass on her skills on to new generations of performers.

Press Reviews

"Her characters are great, as is she, and you will leave the venue smiling. I could not stop laughing." - Arts Hub (Melbourne Fringe 2011)

"The show is immensely likable, it is memorably warm, personal and slyly naughty... The best introduction to modern ventriloquism one could hope to see." - The Punch (Adelaide Fringe 2012)

"Sarah Jones is a ventriloquist who mixes modern sensibilities, sophisticated meta-comedy and ingenious classical awareness" - Broadway Baby (Edinburgh Fringe 2012)
